

6. How do interest groups try to influence government policies and decisions?

7. Describe these different types of interest groups.
 - a. Economic interests:

 - b. Issue-oriented interests:

 - c. Public-interest groups:

8. What do lobbyists do?

9. What are some criticisms of interest groups?

10. Describe four ways citizens can participate in government.

11. Why is voting important?

12. Why do many people choose not to vote?

13. What are some ways citizens can participate in political campaigns?

14. What is the role of political action committees (PACs) in political campaigns?