

Interest Groups – Sample Homework Pacing

(Page numbers are from Ford, American Government and Politics Today, 17th edition)

Assignment 1: Introduction to Interest Groups

- What If?, page 233
- Chapter Introduction, page 234
- Interest Groups: A Natural Phenomenon, pages 234-237
- Study guide questions 1-7
- Key terms 1-3
- What Are Interest Groups?
- Crash Course: Interest Groups

Assignment 2: Interest Group Membership

- Why Do Americans Join Interest Groups?, pages 237-239
- Study guide questions 8-9
- Key terms 4-8
- Crash Course: Interest Group Formation

Assignment 3: Economic Interest Groups

- Economic Interest Groups, pages 239-245
- Study guide question #10
- Key terms 9-10

Assignment 4: Other Interest Groups

- Environmental Groups, pages 245-246
- Public Interest Groups, pages 246-247
- Other Interest Groups, pages 247-248
- Foreign Governments, page 248
- Study guide question #11
- Key term 11

Assignment 5: Interest Group Success

- What Makes an Interest Group Powerful?, pages 248-252
- Study guide questions 13-20
- Key terms 12-15
- What Makes Interest Groups Successful?

Assignment 6: Interest Groups and Public Policy

- Interest Groups and Representative Democracy, pages 259-260
- What Would You Do?, pages 260-261
- Study guide questions 21-23
- How Do Interest Groups Affect Policy?

Assignment 7: Prepare for the Test

- Review your reading and class notes
- Review Quizlet