

Introduction to Government – Sample Homework Pacing

(Page numbers are from Ford, American Government and Politics Today, 17th edition)

Assignment 1: Government and Politics

- Introduction, pages 2-6
- Study guide questions 1-2
- Key terms 1-3
- What Is AP Government?
- Crash Course: Why Study Government?

Assignment 2: Social Contract Theory

- Politics and Government, page 6
- Why Is Government Necessary?, pages 6-7
- Study guide questions 3-4
- Key terms 4-5
- How do Americans stand out from the rest of the world?
- What is the Difference between Government and Politics?
- The Enlightenment: Social Contract

Assignment 3: Political Culture

- Read Fundamental Values, pages 7-13
- Study guide questions 5-6
- Key terms 6-13

Assignment 4: Democracy and Other Options

- Read Why Choose Democracy?, pages 13-18
- Study guide questions 7-12
- Key terms 14-31
- What Is Democracy?
- Unitary, Confederation, and Federal Governments
- How Do People Limit Government?

Assignment 5: Theories of American Democracy

- Read Who Really Rules in America?, pages 18-21
- Study guide question 13
- Key terms 31-34
- How Does American Democracy Really Work?

Assignment 6: Political Ideologies

- Political Ideologies, page 21
- The Traditional Political Spectrum, pages 21-22
- In the Middle: Liberalism and Conservatism, page 22
- The Difficulty of Defining Liberalism and Conservatism, pages 22-24
- Study guide questions 14-15
- Key terms 35-39
- Crash Course: Political Ideology

Assignment 7: Challenges to American Democracy

- The Challenge of Change, pages 24-31
- Study guide questions 16-17
- Key terms 40-41

Assignment 8: Prepare for Test

- Review notes, study guide, and key terms
- AP Gov Live: Government Basics